November 27, 2008

You've found the frothiest, most lovely gown to wear to a spectacular holiday soiree!

That's the good news; now for the bad - it's strapless and backless, so you have to find undergarments that will allow the dress to enhance your body without restricting your ability to breathe.

Here's the scoop on holiday underpinnings to ensure you're the belle of the ball!

The rear guard

Give a sleeker, slimmer silhouette under body-skimming holiday fashions.

C.J. Grenier and Wacoal have come up with ultra discreet support panties. You'll forget you have them on. Laser-cut edges, light control fabrics and double lined waistbands, create the 'best behind', with no annoying 'overhang'. You'll look great going and coming!

1 C.J Grenier, boy-leg shaper panty, #503. Available in beige and black/white, sizes S-2XL, $42.

2 Wacoal, #80565, long leg, shape panty. Available in nude and black, sizes M, L, XL, $74.

For coverage and/or cleavage under sexy holiday fashions, choose a NuBra, self adhesive bra. Feather-light, NuBra stick-on bra is free from straps and works perfectly with backless garments. Front closure helps create great cleavage, but works best for petite women.

3 Available in nude, sizes A, B, C cups, $65.
